for Missouri: Fair; variable winds; beginning at 8 a. m. to-day, for St. Louis: Fair; warmer.The McKinley bill was not smothered by talk in the House, but it is likely to die of deliberation in the Senate.The news in yesterday's Post-Dispatch was not copyrighted—which is a good thing for the morning papers.The gentleman who is shrieking out to the South advising it to boycott the North is appropriately named HOWELL. Let him Howell.We beg to call the attention of Mr.

Lodge to the situation in San Salvador as the result of elections carried on under force bills.Not much reliance can be placed in the news received of victories and defeats in the Central American "War." Truth qualified by censorship is no longer current as news in civilized countries.It does not look well to have the Supreme Court of the State of Missouri taking part in a dilatory proceeding to prevent a new railroad corporation from exercising its legal rights in obtaining an entry into St. Louis.The Census Committee request the merchants, manufacturers and business men who have received blanks for reporting omitted names to report to the committee as soon as possible in order that the work of supplying omissions may be closed up.The story told in a morning paper of an attempt by CHARLES F. VAIL to kill his wife a year ago by turning on the gas unlighted and leaving her to die was probably suggested by an incident found in a certain erotic novel written by an individual lately the defendant in a "racy" divorce suit. It is one of the stories that cannot be told with good effect a second time.The interruption of the matinee races at the Fair Grounds yesterday was only temporary and has resulted in an arrangement which insures the continuance of these popular events for the summer. St. Louis boasts of the finest summer climate in the country, and with the amusements to match the season is becoming a summer resort with no attraction left out.In their platform adopted yesterday the Republicans of Minnesota demand that any commodity which is or shall become the subject of a trust or combination shall be placed on the free list. If the Republicans of Minnesota will give a little more thought to the subject they will discover that no manufactured article is beyond the reach of the concentrating influence. Carried to its logical conclusion the demand of the Minnesota Republicans would issue in a policy of free trade.THERE is some prospect that the horror and mystery surrounding the Whitechapel murders will be cleared up by the alleged arrest of a medical student who is accused of the crimes. There is no parallel among English-speaking people to this awful series of murders, but similar instances have been known on the Continent of Europe, particularly in Italy. They are the outcome of perverted instincts, which happily are very rare, but that such perversions are possible at all is enough to cause a shudder of disgust throughout the whole civilized world.SOME of our contemporaries are comparing the city clearing-house reports of 1880 with those of last year, and the increase thus shown with the increase of population. The results obtained only show how unreliable clearing-house reports are as tests of increased population or business either. The census shows a very heavy increase of population in New York, Cincinnati and Milwaukee, and that there has been a large increase of business in those cities is susceptible of conclusive demonstration.

Yet the clearing-house reports show a decrease of business in all three in 1889 as compared with 1880. A decrease of merely speculative transactions in stocks and imaginary grain may cut down clearing-house reports while the real business is largely increasing. On the other hand by "wind" trading and the padding of her clearing-house reports, it was easy for Kansas City to show a 365 per cent increase of clearances from 1880 to 1889 without any corresponding increase of business or population.

EVIL COUNSEL.

The force bill, if passed, would be a bad thing for the whole country. But a much worse thing for the South would be the ill-tempered, impracticable and most impolitic opposition advised by the Atlanta Constitution.

The bill is not in harmony with the prevailing temper of the people in the North, where it is opposed as a dangerous innovation by leading Republican papers as well as by the whole independent and Democratic press. Its repeal would quickly follow its enforcement unless something should occur to change the temper of the Northern people.

The barbaric boycott advised by the Atlanta Constitution would be the most effective means of bringing about this change of temper and arousing the fiercer spirit of sectionalism which is the sole reliance of the authors and supporters of this bill. A retaliatory boycott of the North, including friend and foe, the innocent and the guilty, would be practicable only far enough to add new fuel to the flames and immensely aggravate the evils of a bad situation.

The enviable national reputation which the Atlanta Constitution achieved under the guidance of the lamented GRADY's broad, genial and generous patriotism is now, unfortunately, lending importance and mischievous potency to the reversed attitude of that paper. His successor is also acquiring national fame, but of a kind which Northern Democrats will class with that of him who fired the Ephesian dome. By a general and emphatic rejection of advice which tends only to further sectional aggravation and conflict the South can do more than by any other course to rebuke the supporters of the force bill and to hasten its repeal if enacted.

TRACES OF A "SLUSH FUND."

The revelations in the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH from the books of the A. Siegel Gum Fixture Co. were a striking exhibition of the process of extracting a 50-per-cent "slush fund" from a $39,000 job of improvements for the State Capitol building.

An inspection of the gas fixtures put in and of the charges for material and work discloses the fact that the State paid two prices for all it got and for much that it did not get. The amounts allowed and paid for labor are exaggerated out of all proportion to the work done, and many costly articles included in the payments are not to be found in the rooms to which they were charged. The firm's shipping book does not tell who got the missing articles, but it does show that equivalents in the form of fine hall lamps, drum lights, marble clocks, bronze statuettes, chandeliers, etc., were shipped to the State Auditor, the State Treasurer, the Governor's private secretary and the Warden of the Penitentiary. There are some noticeable irregularities in the records referring to the allowing of the accounts, and the firm's shipping book tells of "picture cards and a bottle of something strong" sent by express to the chairman of the Senate's Committee on Accounts.

The "package of picture cards" expressed to the aforesaid chairman may have been made up of petty trifles not very valuable, and the acquisitions of the State officers may have been innocent, though unseemly, dealings with a firm that had obtained what is called "a soft snap" from the State through them.

But the big overcharges throw a sinister light upon such dealings and make it the duty of the next General Assembly to order a thorough investigation of all the accounts and contract lettings connected with the reconstruction of the State's buildings.
